

BOOK DISCUSSION WITH LYNDA LEVIN:

"THE BOOK OF LOST FRIENDS" by Lisa Wingate

Tuesday, February 15, 1:30 PM

A new novel inspired by historical events: a story of three young women on a journey, who search for family amidst the destruction of the post-Civil War South and a modern-day teacher who rediscovers their story with its connection to her own students' lives.

Stories from actual "Lost Friends" advertisements regarding freed slaves searching for loved ones who had been sold. These appeared in Southern newspapers after the Civil War and are brought to life by Lisa Wingate

Join us for another excellent presentation and discussion! Please CLICK HERE to register and link will be sent to you. Please CLICK HERE to access a copy of the book from the library. These monthly book discussions are presented through a partnership of the DAVID POSNACK JCC and FRIENDS OF THE STIRLING ROAD LIBRARY. This is a free program and open to the public.