Shelly Isaacs, the founder of Café Cinematheque International, is known for teaching film appreciation at various universities and is one of South Florida’s most accessible experts on foreign-language film.

Wednesdays, May 8 & 22, at 7PM

May 8, 7 PM
“A Royal Affair”
A young queen who is married to an insane king, falls secretly in love with her physician. Together they started a revolution that changed a nation forever.

May 22, 7 PM
“I’m Your Man”
A scientist accepts an offer to participate in an extraordinary experiment in order to obtain research funds for her studies.

Films on one or more of the following: Kanopy, Freevee, HBO Max, Criterion, Tubi, Amazon, Apple

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER